

Schedule
Month	Day	Tasks	Features
February	12	Setup the webserver. Implement a basic test webpage. Research Watson AI system.	The user can navigate to a basic test page.
	19	Implement the signup feature.	The user can signup for the service provided that they have a penn state user account.
	26	Implement the basic login feature.	The user can login to the service provided that they had used the signup feature. The email address field must match the email address of a user account and the password field must match the password of the user account.
March	5	Nothing. Spring Break.
	12	Import information from the student directory into the user accounts. Implement the account details page.	The account details page includes information obtained from the student directory.
	19	A simple clustering algorithm using the AI (e.g. what are the important factors for providing recommendations?)	A simple program matching individuals within a data set.
	26	Modify the account details page.	The user can make changes to their user account.
April	2	Implement the friends page.	The user can add and remove friends from their account.
	9	Implement the recommendations page.	The recommendations page lists all available user accounts.
	16	Implement the AI service to provide recommendations on the recommendations page.	The recommendations page lists user accounts with similar attributes; these attributes should be listed with each user account.
	23	Identify and fix defects.	The final product works as described in the functional requirements.
	30	Build a promotional website.	The user can navigate to the promotional webpage. The promotional webpage links to the signup page.